
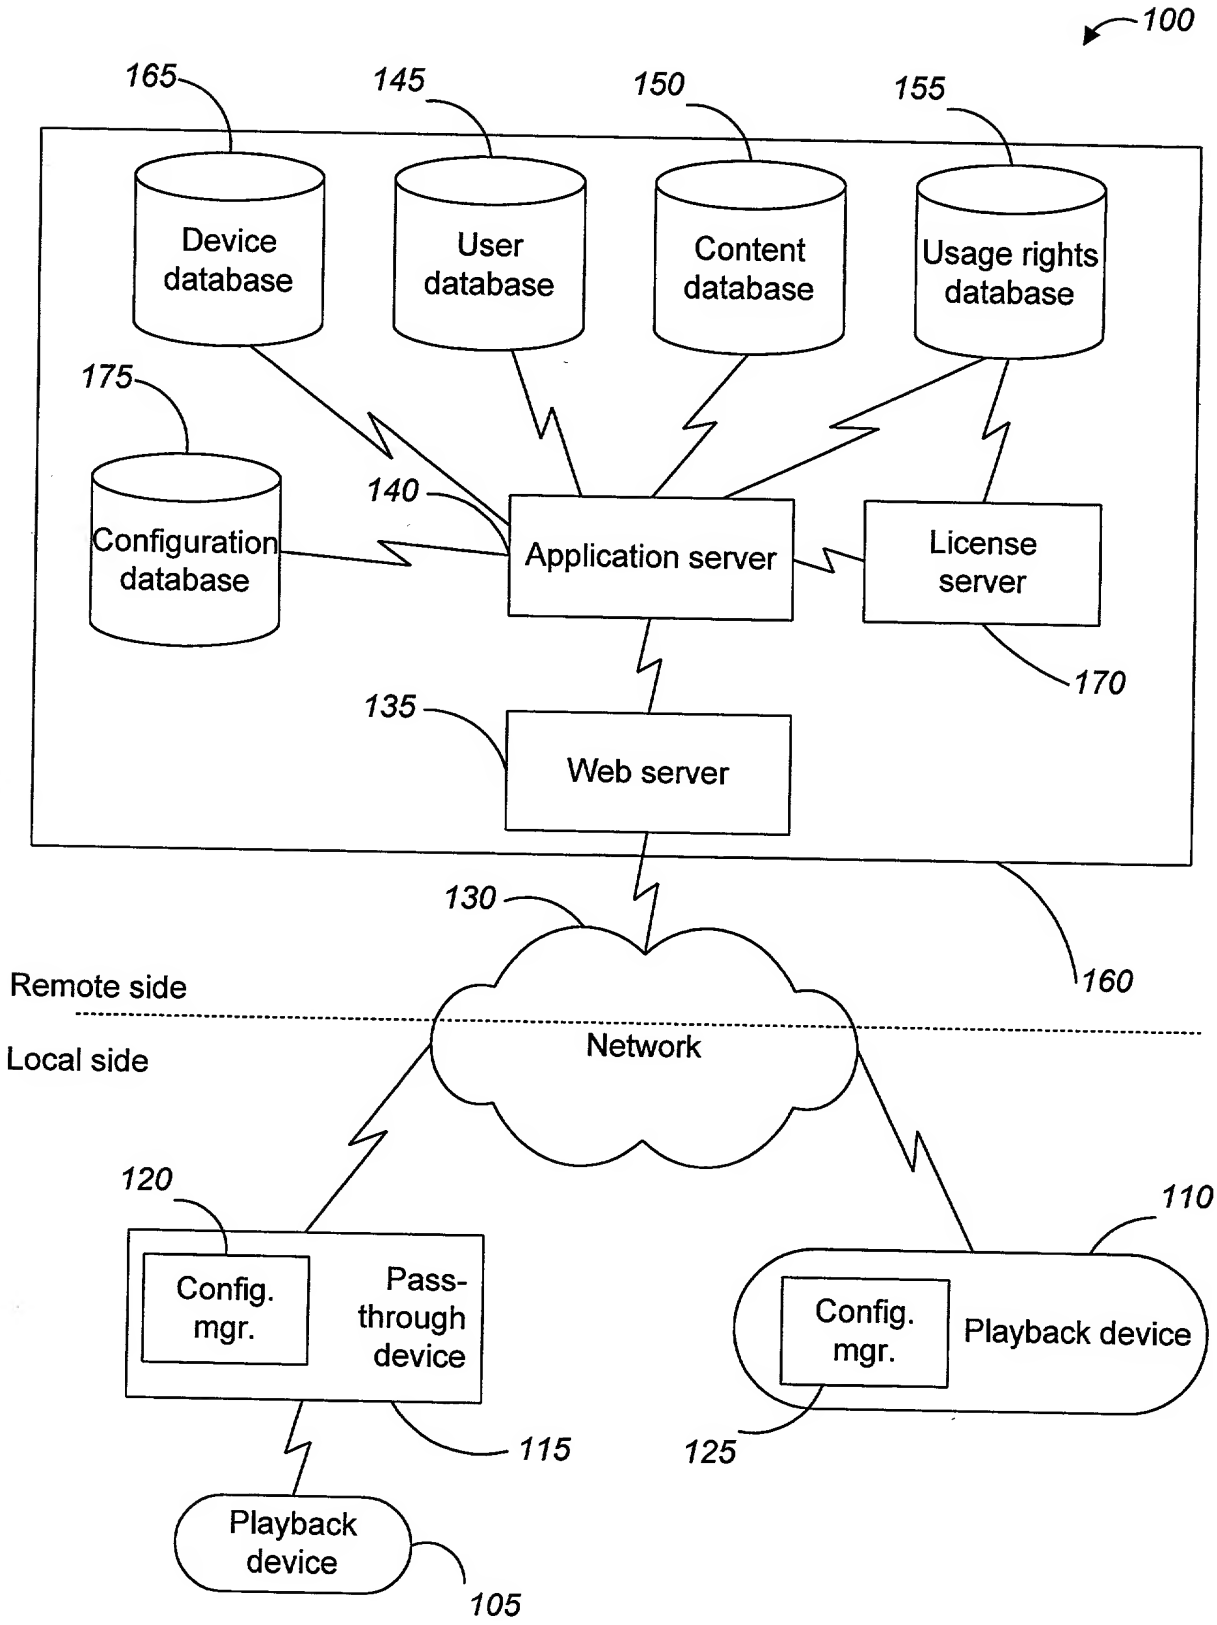

FIG. 1

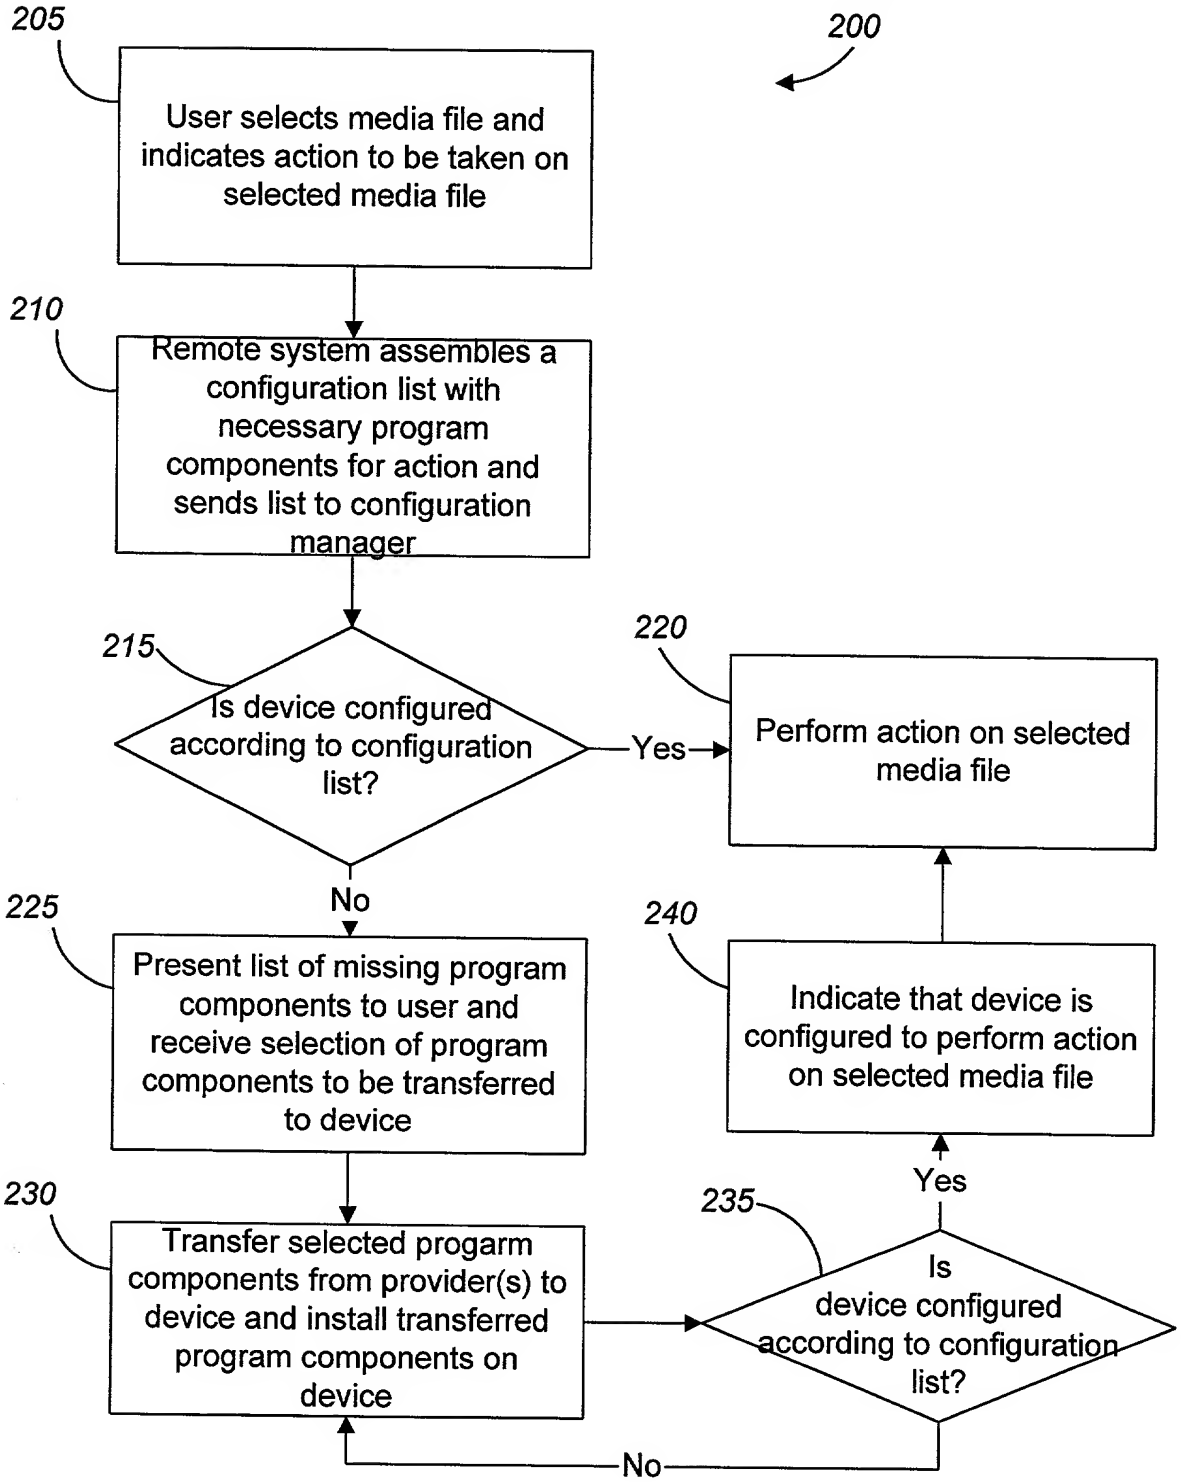
Doc-Code: 12868-009001



200
205
User selects media file and indicates action to be taken on selected media file 210
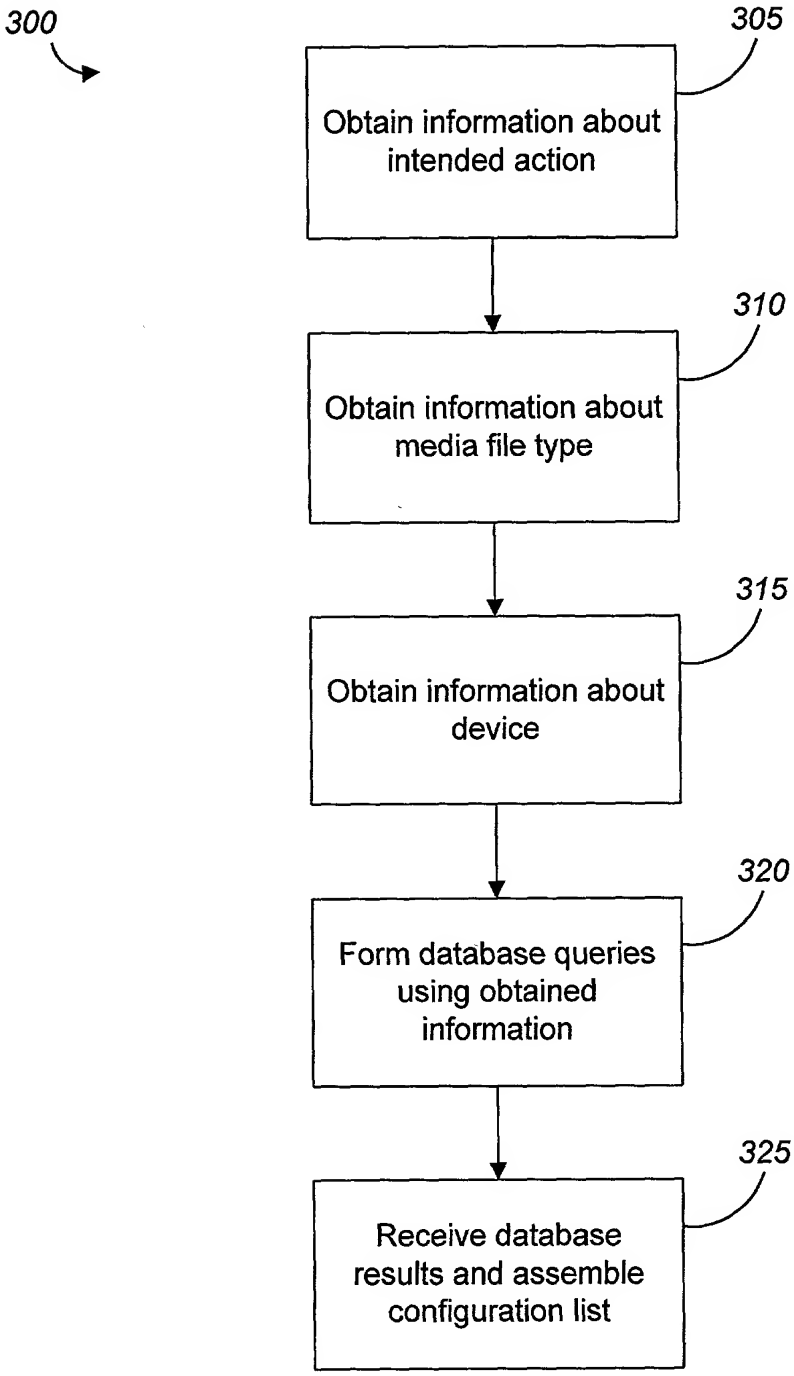
Remote system assembles a configuration list with necessary program components for action and sends list to configuration manager
215
Is device configured according to configuration list?
Yes
220
Perform action on selected media file
No
225
Present list of missing program components to user and receive selection of program components to be transferred to device
230
Transfer selected progarm components from provider(s) to device and install transferred program components on device
235
Is device configured according to configuration list?
Yes
No
240
Indicate that device is configured to perform action on selected media file

FIG. 2



300
305
Obtain information about intended action
310
Obtain information about media file type
315
Obtain information about device
320
Form database queries using obtained information
325
Receive database results and assemble configuration list

FIG. 3